

2018 LINESHEET

FLAGBARER

Flagbarer is a line of bags and accessories made from upcycled decorative flags and is ethically, joyfully sewn in Ottawa, Canada.

We take beautiful materials and upcycle them into functional, unique products with a story. Each piece has a paper hangtag with the Flagbarer story.

Each bag is unique - based on the flag material it is made from. This line is subject to flag availability. Flagbarer is a project of EcoEquitable, a social enterprise that empowers immigrant and marginalized women to develop confidence and skills in the sewn goods industry.

EcoEquitable is a registered Canadian charity & social enterprise, providing skills development, employment, and training through small-scale manufacturing.

OUR PROCESS:

We produce in small batches with upcycled materials to ethically and joyfully create a low-carbon product.

Our sewing studio is located in Vanier, Ottawa. Our sewists are graduates of our Sewing For Jobs Program and joyfully complete your orders.

OUR PROMISE:

We produce high quality, unique products in an ethical, environmentally responsible setting. We are creative and caring in everything that we do.

OUR MISSION:

Providing a bridge to social and economic integration for people in need, especially immigrant women, while greening our community.

TIMELINES & STUFF

Our turn-around is 2-8 weeks depending on the number of orders we are currently sewing, the complexity of your order, and any materials that we need to purchase.

Your purchase supports EcoEquitable, a charity and social enterprise that works with immigrant and marginalized women in developing confidence, decreasing their social isolation and integrating them into the Canadian Labour Market. EcoEquitable works on the UN's following Sustainable Development Goals.
